

Tarrant High School Parent Involvement Plan

At Tarrant High School, we believe that parent and family engagement is crucial to student success. Our Parent Involvement Plan aims to provide parents and families with effective strategies and support systems to improve student achievement.

Tarrant High School is committed to building capacity in parents, educators, and community organizations by:

1. Assisting parents in understanding:
 - Alabama's academic content standards
 - State student academic achievement standards
 - State and local academic assessments
 - Requirements of parental involvement
 - How to monitor their child's progress
 - How to work with educators to improve their child's achievement
2. Providing materials and training to help parents work with their children to enhance academic performance.
3. Educating our staff, with parental assistance, on:
 - The value of parental contributions
 - How to effectively communicate with parents as equal partners
 - Implementing and coordinating parent programs
 - Building strong ties between parents and the school
4. Coordinating and integrating parental involvement programs with other Federal, State, and local programs, including conducting activities such as parent resource centers to encourage and support parents in fully participating in their children's education.
5. Ensuring that all information related to school and parent programs, meetings, and other activities is sent to parents in an understandable format and language.
6. Providing reasonable support for parental involvement activities as requested by parents.

Tarrant High School recognizes that engaged parents are vital to the success of our students and our school. We are committed to fostering a welcoming environment that encourages parent participation in all aspects of their children's education.
